SEVENTH SENATORIAL DISTRICT.

We, the undersigned, appointed by the Hon. Thomas C. Ploids and the Hon. Alexander Ward to decide the controversy which has arisen in the Seventh Senatorial district, in regard to the nomination of the democratic candidate for Senator in said district, with the view to the harmony of the democracy of said district, and a union upon one candidate to be supported by the party at the approaching election, having heard the said parties and examined the facts, find that the Hon. Thomas C. Fields received the votes of a majority of the delegates elected pursuant to the call of the General Committee of Tammany Hall, and is the regularly nominated candidate of the democratic party of the Seventh Senatorial district.

WILLIAM M. TWEED,

WILLIAM M. TWEED, TERENCE FARLEY, PETER B. SWEENY, WILLIAM DODGE.

The question in regard to the regularity of the nomination in the Seventh Senatorial district having been submitted to a sub-committee of the General Committee of Tammany Hali, who have decided that Mr. Fields is the regularly nominated candidate, I am no longer a candidate for the Senate in said district.

OCTOBER 77, 1865. FELLOW CITIERNE-In compliance with the wishes of my friends, and in conformity with my own views, after a due consideration of the subject, I have concluded to withdraw as a candidate for Senator in the Seventh Senatorial district in the approaching election in favor of the REGULAR DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE.

I am prompted to this course by a strong desire to save this district from the misfortune of the election of a republicant to this important office, more important from the fact that this is a most critical moment with the democracy, the Senator to be elected at this election having a vote in the election of a United States Senator. I therefore requesting, the present United States Senator. I therefore requesting friends to vote for the regular democratic candidate, and to use their exertions to secure his election.
